

Will Campos

Will Campos' work is heavily inspired by graffiti and comic/manga style of illustration. Though he dabbles in sound art and music composition, his discipline of choice is drawing and sketching. Having grown up with limited access to artistic tools, Will feels right at home using a simple piece of paper and a pencil. The subjects of Will's work focus on his personal interests such as automobiles, motorcycles, and music. Being a private person, Will sees art as a way to express himself as well as a form of escapism.

Will Campos was born in East Los Angeles, California in 1989. Growing up in a military family, he spent most of childhood in Europe. He is currently studying Visual Art at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs and will be receiving his BA in either Fall of 2024 or Spring of 2025. Growing up in a working-class family, Campos was never exposed to the art world, nor did he grow up in an artistic family. Rather, his interest in art came from his own volition in taking solace in his imagination. Campos currently is focusing on his studies after leaving his job as an intern mechanic due to some physical limitations from surgeries on his knees. After school, he plans to work as a Department of Defense civilian for the United States Air Force. His artistic goal is to release a graphic novel. He currently lives in Widefield, Colorado.
